RULES OF THE CHURCH

SEVERAL CONSIDERED BY THE EPIS-COPAL DEPUTIES AND BISHOPS.

The Revised Law on Marriage and Divorce-Quadrennial Conference of Wesleyan Methodists Opened.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 16 .- Among the reports presented to the House of Deputies of the Episcopalian convention to-day was one as trustees of the General Theological Seminary all the old board and proposing Henry Butt as the successor of Rev. Dr. Hall, deceased. Majority and minority reports on the proposition of the bishops to change the title page of the book of common prayer, precipitated a warm discussion. The bishops desired to insert the words "According to American use," rather than insert the whole name of the church. This was interpreted by some as a move toward changing the name of the church. It was also argued that the revised prayer book had been completed in 1892 and dropped, and that it would be unwise to take it up again now. A vote being taken, the deputies refused to concur in the revision. There was a lively debate over another message from th bishops recommending the reference of the canons to the present revision co with instructions to report to the next con to go to the new commission to which the onstitutional revision was referred yesterday, but this was overruled in the end and the action of the bishops concurred in. After a vigorous discussion of the proposed system of provinces under archbishops, which is intended to give the church a judicial system, the deputies voted to refer it to the new constitutional commission. Most of the speeches were in favor of the innovation. Rev. Dr. F. W. Taylor, of Springfield, Ill., described the attempt to erect a province of Illinois without the sanction of the convention, and showed how it was handicapped by lack of authority.

The deputies had an interesting debate regarding church unity this afternoon. It came up on the consideration of the report of the committee on amendments to the constitution proposing an amendment to Article 8, allowing bishops to take certain congregations under their spiritual care and permitting these outside congregations to use a special service selected by the bishop. This was a step in the direction of church unity and it was debated with great warmth. The committee was about evenly divided on the subject. Dr. W. H. Huntington, of New York, made a forcible argument in favor of the plan and said that there was every reason to believe that it would become a successful experiment and in the Swedish Episcopal churches of Minneapolis they had an example of what could be done in this direction. If the church believed what it ample of what could be done in this direction. If the church believed what it had previously declared about church unity, here was a chance to be consistent. Rev. J. J. Faude, of Minneapolis, opposed the plan and said that it meant giving the bishops carte blanche to adopt whatever form of service they saw fit. It would in a way relegate the book of common prayer to the back grand in these sporadic congregations and would prove a dangerous experiment. Others took part in the debate and it will be continued to-morrow.

The House of Bishops to-day appointed a commission to prepare a version of the fer with the English church as to a commission to prepare a version of the prayer book in German. The committee to board of reference on foreign missions of the Anglican communion, appointed in 1880. reported that the object for which it had been appointed had been accomplished and it was discharged. The revision commission reported finally with Canon 30, on marlage and divorce. The canon, as reported, orbids any minister to solemnize the marlage of any person who has been divorced unless the person was the innocent party in a divorce granted by the court for adultery. If any minister knows or believes that anyone has married otherwise than allowed by the discipline of the church, he may not administer baptism or communion to that person, unless death be imminent and the erson be penitent, without the consent of

WESLEYAN METHODISTS. National Quadrennial Conference in

Session at Fairmount Camp Grounds. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FAIRMOUNT, Ind., Oct. 16 .- The fourteenth quadrennial General Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church opened here this afternoon, with Rev. N. Warden, of West Chazy, N. Y., in the chair, and | Frank Agan (McCarthy) ............ Rev. E. M. Bruce, of Syracuse, secretary. This is one of the largest conferences ever held in this part of the State, there being over one hundred ministers and delegates from all over the United States present, and others are coming on nearly every All of the available rooms have een rented in advance by the committee, and now it would be almost impossible to ecure lodging at any price. Among the elegates are: W. H. Kennedy, of Ada, D., general missionary superintendent; A. F. Jennings, editor of Wesleyan Periodical, which is published at Syracuse, N. Y., and

Rev. A. W. Hall, of Syracuse. Every State in the Union is Every State in the Union is or will be represented by from two to eight delegates. The meetings are being held at the camp grounds, about one mile west of this place, and will continue for ten days. The grounds were lately bought by the church, and a large tabernacle, a dining hall and a number of lodging houses erected thereon, making it an ideal place for a large meeting of this sort. The grounds are a distance from the depot, and hacks have been running from the depot to the grounds, and have been kept very busy for two days past.

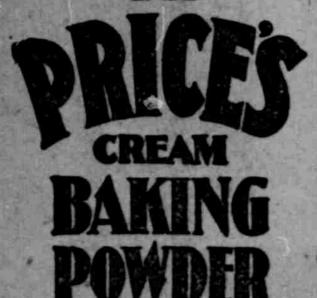

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 .- The board of trustees of the American University convened in special session here to-day to hear reports, inspect architects' plans, and take steps for the actual beginning of building operations. The trustees represented were: President, John E. NO BOOTY SECURED.

Train Stopped and an Effort Made to Open the Express Safe.

TEMPLE, Tex., Oct. 16.-Last night when the south-bound Missouri, Kansas & Texas train arrived at Little River, eight miles south of Temple, two masked men got on the engine and made the engineer pull out. Arriving at the river, a mile distant, the train was stopped and the mail, express car and engine pulled over the bridge Here an attempt was made to blow the express safe open with dynamite. The car was badly wrecked but the safe was not opened. The robbers abandoned the job and left on horseback across the country. Officers with bloodhounds tried to follow the trail, but got into the main road and the dogs could do nothing. The train was delayed half an hour. No one was hurt and no booty was secured.

GREAT CROWD ATTENDING THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

Municipal Water Works System for Rushville-Story of a Deserted Bride at Greencastle.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 16 .- The second day of the Fort Wayne centennial was opened by a salute of forty-five guns, fired by the Zollinger Battery. The weather was clear, cool and bracing, and continued so all day. The number of visitors is largely increased over that of yesterday, and every train brings hundreds. The downtown district is the busiest of any time in the history of the city. The streets are crowded, and the people are beginning to speculate on the price of standing room when the throngs of to-morrow and Friday are all here. The chief event on the programme this forenoon was the meeting of the old settlers at the Princess rink. About two thousand were present when Judge Morris, president of the meeting, called the assembly to order. Gray heads and wrinkled faces predominated in the big audience. The ages of the majority would doubtless have brought the average close to three score, for most of those in attendance were pioneers of northern In-They were survivors of the few undreds of hardy and intrepid men and women who more than a half century ago braved the perils and hardships of the wilderness, and with ax and plow wrought from the domain of the savage the great and fair empire of the Northwest. Not alone from Fort Wayne and Ailen county came the venerable and revered pioneers who filled the Princess rink this morning. Old settlers from every part of northeast-ern Indiana were there. Rev. S. A. North-rop delivered an address this afternoon, and to-night the old settlers had a campire and were addressed by H. C. Hanna, William P. Breen, of this city; Joseph E. Woodhill, of Angola, and others.

CRUELLY DESERTED.

An English Bride Left in Greencastle Without Money or Clothes.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Ind., Oct. 16 .- Mrs. Thomas Wilson, an English woman, aged eighteen, is stopping at the National Hotel in this city and tells a story that shows she has had a most unfortunate experience in her week's stay in America. She appealed to the police of this city last night for protection. She says she was married last December in Liverpool, England, to Thomas Wilson, an American, who had gone to that country four years ago and joined the English army. Wilson spoke to her of Greencastle, Ind., two years ago and promised to bring her here for a permanent home. They sailed on the Campania, arriving in New York last Thursday, having been delayed on the trip by an accident. They came to Greencastle, arriving here yesterday before noon on the Vandalia. About 11 o'clock Wilson and his wife walked a block from the station and he told her to wait on the corner until he went to see a friend. She remained there until nearly dark, but Wilson did not return. He had $700 of ner money and she had paid their fares to The horse is a little over nineteen years this country. The woman has no luggage old and his driver and owner has passed except a pancel, Wilson taking even her pocketbook. They had tickets direct to this city. Mrs. Wilson is penniless and is now in the care of the township trustees. She says if she returns to England she will be subject to cat-o-nine-tails punishment for leaving without leave, as she was under age, but says she is anxious to return and will no doubt receive money as soon as she can get a reply from her mother. Her mother's name is Mrs. A. Hewitt, of Seaforth Barracks, Liverpool.

Mrs. Wilson described her husband accurately to the police, but no trace of such a man can be found. The young woman's story is generally regarded as truthful. She says she will do housework until she can hear from home. Her oc-cupation in England was that of a cheese maker. She has excited great sympathy by her story.

AGAINST THE SOCIAL EVIL.

Good Mothers of Tipton Wage War on Two Houses of Bad Women.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TIPTON, Ind., Oct. 16,-Reform has broken out in this city and the moral and Christian people are fighting a social evil that has recently sprung up here. Tipton has always maintained the reputation of being governed by moral influences, but about two months ago two houses of ill repute were located on the most prominent streets in the city, each having four or five inmates. The best and most influential women of the city effected an organization | with success and over $50,000 of the amount for the suppression of social vice. After holding several meetings, they succeeded in raising a prosecution fund and affidavits were filed against each of the inmates of

Last night several were arrested and lodged in jail. This morning officers were after the remainder, but most of them left the city and the houses to-day are closed and advertised for rent. For want of bail the girls will have to remain in jail until the next term of court, which will not meet until the third Monday in November. The women are determined, and, having the support of the best people, backed with plenty of money and legal advice, they will surely win. Every attorney in the city refused to take the case of the prisoners, and they will be compelled to import legal coun-

RUSHVILLE'S WATER WORKS. Twenty-Year Franchise to Howe & Co., of Indianapolis.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, Ind., Oct. 16.-There has been rejoicing here to-day over the final passage by the City Council, last night, of an ordinance granting a twenty-year franchise to the Rushville Water Company to construct and operate a system of water works and electric lights in this city. Immediately after the adoption of the waterworks ordinance the Council adopted a second ordinance authorizing the issuance of $36,000 of six-per-cent, city bonds, which, with the present electric-light plant, valued at $5,000, is taken by the Rushville Water stock owned by the city in the new water corporation. The Howe Pump and Engine Company, of Indianapolis, is the other stockholder, it having but forty shares. The capital stock of the new concern is $35,000. The Howe company, with forty shares, has a controlling interest, however, and will have two of the three direct er, and will have two of the three directors. They are to operate the plant for the commercial and domestic rentals, the city's annual rental of $7,000 being used to pay the interest and meet the bonds as they mature. The new plant will cost about $85,000, and will be bonded for $50,000. It is to be completed by May 1, 1896. At the end of the twenty-year period the city can take the plant by paying $4,000. city can take the plant by paying $4,000 for the Howe's forty shares of stock and paying for all additions and extensions made in the meantime. The city and mortgage bonds are divided into convenient amounts, so that the whole will be paid in twenty years out of the $7,000 annual water and light rentals of the city. The plan a highly satisfactory one, combining ures. The Howe company has filed a bond of $35,000 for the completion and operation of the plant. Farson, Leach & Co., of Chicago, get the bonds at their face value.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Oct. 16.-An arrest occurred the death of the wife of Major A. B. Peters, one of Logansport's oldest and most prominent citizens. In the household at the time was Mrs. Lizzie Angus. who was with Mrs. Peters during the latter's last illness. This morning Mrs. Angus was arrested. It was supposed that she had taken some money that Mrs. Peters had taken some money that Mrs. Peters was known to have. A search of her apartments failed to discover any large sums of money, but a large quantity of clothing and other valuables, which had belonged to Mrs. Peters, were found. This evening the Angus woman begged for some morphine and on condition she should make a confession it was given her. She then told where $200 was buried. It is believed that she stole several times this heved that she stole several times this amount, as Mrs. Peters was known to have kept a large sum about the house. Since her confession there is a suspicion that Mrs. Angus may have had something to do with the death of Mrs. Peters.

TWO STEEPLE CHASES, ONE OF TWO MILES AND ANOTHER OF THREE.

Other Interesting Events-Three Ladies' Day at Latonia-New Forsythe Track Opened.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 .- The attendance was light at Morris Park to-day. The first event was a hurdle race at two miles, in which seven started. Contrary to expectation, all of the lot finished without accident, although there were, practically, but two horses in the race. Caraccas was the which resulted in sensational developments favorite at 7 to 5, while Kilkenny was a was made here to-day. About ten days ago strong second choice and the others not favored at all. Bickie made the running for a mile and a half, with Kilkenny in second place, when Caraccas shot past both and won as he pleased. Four maiden steeplechasers went to the post in the second race. with Daybreak a slight favorite over Olinda, although the positions were reversed in the opening. When the flag fell Olinda took the lead and was never headed, winning easily. On the first round Olinda fouled Daybreak, but the judges did not think it changed the result and the horses were placed as they finished. The third race was one of the best steeplechases in this neighborhood in a long time, for all the eight horses jumped well and finished. Duke of Abercorn, with a gentleman jockey in the saddle, led to the last sprint, when The Peer came on and won very easily. Duke of Abercorn was about ready to drop, requiring all the efforts of Mr. Pearse to hold him up and finish, which he did in second place, Hesperian being a good third. Sum-
